

Outcomes/Sanctions: Social Probation (Ending Spring 2019)

1. Kappa Delta Sorority is immediately placed on social probation from February 19, 2018 through Spring 2019. During this time, the organization may participate in philanthropic, service and intramural events which are registered and approved through the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life. Social probation also means that the organization is prohibited from hosting or participating in any social activities/events with alcohol. The University of North Georgia is recommending that the College Panhellenic Council determine whether or not Kappa Delta Sorority should have privileges at social fraternity and sorority events (i.e. includes but is not limited to Greek Week, Greekapalooza, Fraternity and Sorority Info Sessions, etc.) while the organization is on social probation.
2. Kappa Delta Sorority will remain on probationary status from Summer 2019 through Summer 2020, but will be allowed to return to fully active status regarding activities. Probationary status is defined as a period of time during which the organization cannot violate any policies (including those of the University, its national organization, or local governing bodies). Additional violations of University policy or failure to complete sanctions will jeopardize the organizations' recognition on the University of North Georgia campus.
3. Kappa Delta Sorority cannot represent the University of North Georgia at any UNG sponsored
